En este paso, Ud. puede modificar el tipo de membresía a adquirir: tradicional o electrónica. Para tal fin, dar clic en el botón Edit.

Special Membership Option for Members in Developing Countries

In keeping, with IEEE's mission to "Advance Technology for Humanity," IEEE offers a special electronic-only membership option, at a reduced dues rate, for individuals who reside in developing countries. By choosing the e-Membership option at a reduced dues rate, you will receive electronic versions of your membership card, 'IEEE Spectrum' and 'The Institute' publications. Reduced fees such as unemployed, retired or minimum income are not available for e-Membership but may be applied to Society memberships.

Annual base dues for e-Membership are US$77. Traditional membership base dues are US$149. IEEE traditional and e-Membership both carry a region-specific activity assessment of US $4, $5 or $13 to support locally sponsored member events. This will be included in the total amount due at checkout.

Traditional membership is automatically selected for new members. Renewing members who previously had e-Membership will have the option already selected. If you wish to select the e-Membership option or change it to Traditional, choose Edit below.

☒ IEEE Power & Energy Society Membership Add selected item(s)

The IEEE Power and Energy Society (PES) embraces planning, research, development, design, application, construction, installation and operation of apparatus, equipment, structures, materials and systems for the safe, reliable and economic generation, transmission, distribution, conversion, measurement and control of electric energy. It includes the developing of engineering standards, the providing of information and instruction to the public and to legislators, as well as technical scientific, literary, educational and other activities that contribute to the electric power discipline or utilize the techniques or products within this discipline. The society sponsors various conferences throughout the year, including the PES General Meeting and the International Conference on Power Technology.

PES members also gain access to the IEEE PES Resource Center, a library with hundreds of technical reports, tutorials, conference videos, webinars, presentations and more.

PES also offers networking opportunities, access to peer-reviewed technical Journals and educational materials that help our members stay-up-to date on the latest advances including renewable energy system design and integration, smart-grid technologies, electric vehicles, wholesale market design and operation and asset management. If you wish to purchase additional copies of publications included in your membership, please contact the IEEE Contact Center.
